Overview

Ag2Nut Community Call
21 January 2014

Connecting people and institutions to strengthen analysis and decision making
Why FSIN?

- Critical need for timely and accurate food and nutrition security information

- Need for harmonization of approaches to increase cost-effectiveness and reduce fragmentation of data and duplication of efforts

- Donor-led initiatives limit country and regional ownership and sustainability of these systems
What do we want to achieve?

Enable developing countries to build sustainable information systems on food and nutrition security:

- Establish a global community of practice to share knowledge, best practices and lessons learned
- Provide access to demand-driven harmonized sets of standards, methods, tools and indicators
- Strengthen country and regional level capacities
Who supports FSIN?

Community of Practice

- Country/regions
- Country/regions
- Country/regions
- Country/regions

Global knowledge-sharing platform & south-south cooperation

Community of Practice launched in September 2013

- FSIN Community of Practice: 450+ members
- Community of practice dedicated to Resilience Measurement: 310+ members

Why join the community of practice?

- Have access and contribute to the FSIN online platform designed to share knowledge, best practices among the members
- Receive regular e-alerts on what is new on the website
- Propose content to share with the rest of the community
- Automatically receive invitation to participate in e-consultations
- Participate in dedicated discussion on emerging topics (resilience measurement)
Moving Resilience Measurement forward

- FSIN is facilitating the improvement and harmonization of resilience measurement approaches:

- Established a Technical Working Group (TWG) composed of recognized experts

- A community of practice to share standards, methods and lessons learned among practitioners

- Resilience Measurement papers
  - Paper on Measurement design principles and definition of resilience
  - Develop an analytical framework and field guidance for RM (mid-2014)
FSIN Priority Activities for 2014

Resilience Measurement

- Support field level activities, including regional Resilience Analysis Units

TWG on FNS Measurement

- Establish TWG to reach agreement on a core set of FNS indicators e.g. to support the Post 2015 MDGs

Facilitate Capacity Development on FNS Analysis

- Identification of strengths and gaps in the production and use of food and nutrition security information
- Develop country-led, coordinated action plans for capacity development
