An idle power plant in Abuja, Nigeria. About 1,200 MW of power (enough to power 5 Nigerian states).

Parboiled Rice, Senegal

ECOWAS/CILSS/CORAF: Seeds to countries affected by Ebola
Initiative: Feed the Future

Geographic Scope:
Mali, Senegal, Ghana, Burkina Faso, Benin, Cape Verde, Nigeria, Liberia, Niger, Cote d’Ivoire, Chad, Sierra Leone, Guinea, Gambia, Togo, Guinea-Bissau and Mauritania.

FTF Countries: Mali, Senegal, Ghana, Liberia and Nigeria.

Key Objectives:
• Increase intra-regional trade in agricultural commodities;
• Increase capacity of regional agricultural organizations;
• Increase availability of improved agricultural inputs;
• Increase use of climate smart agricultural practices;
• Increase the productivity and value of cotton crops.

Value Chain Focus:
Maize, rice, sorghum/millet, and livestock.

Cross-Cutting Themes:
• Gender
• Climate Change
• Nutrition
• Youth
• Resilience
Key Regional Partner:
ECOWAS (Economic Community of West African States)

- 15 member countries
- ECOWAS’s Agricultural Policy (ECOWAP)
  - Zero Hunger Policy, Rice Policy, Seed Policy, Fertilizer Regulations. Linked to CAADP and National Agriculture Implementation Plans
- ECOWAS Environment Policy (ECOWEP), others
- ECOWAS Trade Liberalization Scheme, Common External Tariff, trade policies
- Strategic coordination on regional policy implementation with UEMOA